

December 2007

I am looking forward to seeing you all this week, Friday, December 7th, at 2:00pm at the Alegent Health Immanuel Medical Center Library, located on the lower level of the Holling Education Center. The holiday party is the highlight of the year, and this year is an especially wonderful time as we will celebrate the hard work of the Joint Meeting.

Mary Helms will have membership forms and will gladly accept fees during the meeting - bring your checkbook or cash, and ensure current membership for another year.

The meeting agenda and minutes from the September meeting are on the ICON site (<http://iconlibrary.org/iconnection/18/winter07.html> ). Later this week, there will also be follow up articles from our two CE scholarship winners, Angie Arner of the Nebraska Methodist College John Moritz Library and Ella Rathod of the Mary Lanning Hospital Library. You can read about their learning experiences at the Joint Meeting.

I'm pleased to announce that we have a candidate for Freshmen member for the Executive Committee; Heather Brown has stepped up to the plate to run for office. A big thanks goes out to Heather!

See you all soon!
